

Participants from the following institutes and universities were represented

More information on Integration CAN-D

First Integration-CAN-D Joint Research Workshop

Carl von Ossietzky University of Oldenburg
Dalhousie University
Frankfurt International School (FIS)
German Institute for International Education Research (DIPF)
German Network of Refugee Researchers
Goethe University Frankfurt/Main
Leibniz Institute for Educational Trajectories (LifBi)
Leibniz Institute for the Social Sciences (GESIS)
Ludwig-Maximilians-University Munich
University of Alberta
University of Bayreuth
University of Montreal
University of Toronto
University of Vechta

The workshop is part of an ongoing research co-operation between Canada and Germany on the integration of refugees. The Canadian coalition CYRRC - the Child and Youth Refugee Research Coalition- and the German network LERN - Leibniz Education Research Network - are supporting this cooperation by organizing and facilitating joint research activities and presentations. The associated projects are funded by the BMBF- Federal Ministry of Education and Research of Germany and ERASMUS+ - the Jean Monnet Activities, the program for promoting excellence in teaching and research of the European Union.

For further information on the workshop and the project please contact the project co-ordinator Nicola Mühlhäußer at muehlhaeusser@dipf.de or LERN-CAN-D@dipf.de

<http://www.leibniz-bildungspotenziale.de/integration-can-d>

<http://cyrrc.org/current-research/canger-collaboration/>

August 29-31, 2018

German Institute for International Educational Research (DIPF)

Frankfurt am Main

Wednesday, August 29

Doing research with refugee participants: Experience and challenges

Different approaches, procedures and methods that are especially relevant when dealing with refugee children and their families

*Moderated by Katrin Lindner,
Ludwig-Maximilians-University Munich*

Contributor:

Annette Korntheuer, German Network of Refugee Researchers

Mochine Ait Ramdan, Ludwig-Maximilians-University Munich

Anna Yamashita, University of Toronto

1:00-2:00pm Welcome and Introductions

2:00-5:30pm Doing research with refugee participants: Experience and challenges

4:00-4:15pm Coffee break

4:15-5:00pm Teleconference with
Xi Becky Chen, University of Toronto
Johanne Paradis, University of Alberta

5:00-5:30pm Wrap-up

From 7:30pm Dinner (Pasta e Panini)

Thursday, August 30

Diagnostic language tests

Standardized methods and their use in refugee samples; new developments

*Moderated by Cornelia Hamann,
Carl von Ossietzky University of Oldenburg*

Contributors:

Angela Grimm, Goethe University Frankfurt/Main

Lina Abed Ibrahim, Carl von Ossietzky University of Oldenburg

Petra Schulz, Goethe University Frankfurt/Main

9:30am-5:00pm Diagnostic language tests

12:00-1:00pm Lunch break

3:00-3:30pm Coffee break

3:30-4:30pm Teleconference with
Hélène Deacon, Dalhousie University, Halifax
Andrea MacLeod, University of Montreal

4:30-5:00pm Wrap-up

From 7:00pm Dinner (self-payment)

Friday, August 31

Facilitating the exchange of research materials, instruments and data

Exchange on how to improve communication between research partners – implementation needs and possibilities

*Moderated by Karin Zimmer,
University of Vechta*

Contributors:

Thomas Schwager, University of Vechta
Nicola Mühlhäußer, German Institute for International Education Research (DIPF)

9:30am-12:30pm Facilitating research

12:00-12:30pm Wrap-up

12:30-1:00pm Feed-back and concluding remarks

From 1:00pm Lunch snack